NOTICE

This is for information of all concerned that around 400 seats in reserve categories in different subjects of our college are vacant after 3rd time invitation of new applications in different subjects under reserve categories. On the other hand all UR category seats are filled up and there are so many applicants in waiting list of different subjects in UR category. In this circumstance, following the Govt. de-reservation rules we have sent the documents to Govt. BCW Department for the purpose of de-reservations.

The next round of admission (9th phase) may be started around 13th October, 2020, after de-reservation of reserve seats. The applicants who are seeking for admission in our college are directed to follow our website for further notifications.
