Main objective of the webinar:

With a prolonged and significant downturn of the service sector with the Corona virus pandemic spreading across India since March 2020, with its end date not known yet, any substantial recovery measure will take months if not years to operate in its full potential as the subsequent lockdown measures will weigh heavily on the Indian service sector. With this objective in mind, the webinar proposes to assess the probable effects of the pandemic in three key sectors viz. education, banking and health.
