<sup>1</sup> AEI is a network of energy institutes from Asia and includes institutes from Bangladesh, China, India, Indonesia, Iran, Japan, Jordan, Korea, Kuwait, Malaysia, the Philippines, Sri Lanka, Thailand and Japan. Not limiting its reach within the boundaries of Asia, the Institute has also expanded to include associate members from other parts of the world. At the Institute’s launch, TERI was chosen to host its Secretariat, a position it continues to hold. Currently AEI is hosting the regional Secretariat for Renewable Energy and Energy Efficiency Partnership (REEEP) in South Asia.
